Re: NLRB v. Enjoi Transportation, LLC, et.al
Nos. 18-cv-13597 (E.D. Mich.)

Dear Ms. Hamilton and Mr. Lynn:

On December 15, you each were served with copies of a December 13, 2018 Protective Restraining Order (PRO) that restricts the disposal of your personal assets and requires the disclosure to the Board of your expenditures and of your assets valued greater than $500. I enclose a new courtesy copy of the same to your immediate attention.

Pursuant to ¶IV of the PRO, the Board hereby requires that you each provide records and receipts for every expenditure in excess of $500 since December 13, 2018.

Pursuant to ¶V of the PRO, you also must disclose to the Board every asset with a value over $500, such as houses, cars, or appliances, that has been transferred between January 1, 2017 and December 13, 2018. In that list you must provide a description of the asset; the value of the asset when you bought it and the value when it was transferred; the amount of money or other value you received for the transfer; what you did with the money you received; and the names and addresses of you transferred the asset to.

Similarly, pursuant to ¶VI of the PRO, you must disclose to the Board all of your current assets with a value over $500, verified under penalty of perjury.

Exhibit A

The PRO affirmatively required you to submit your asset disclosures to the Board within 14 days of service (see ¶¶ V and VI of the PRO). To date, the Board has not received them. If you submitted the disclosures by mail, please immediately contact me to clarify. Alternatively, you now may send the required information to my attention via email at paul.thomas@nlrb.gov or via overnight mail at 1015 Half Street SE, 4th Floor, Washington DC 20003.

Please be advised that if I do not hear from you or receive your expenditures and asset disclosures by the close of business next Friday, January 11, I will file a motion asking the court to hold you in contempt for refusing to obey the PRO. Defiance may result in imposition of attorney fees and court costs, and/or may lead to your arrest and civil detention until such time as you agree to comply with the court's order.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Paul Thomas
